Dear _____,

Congratulations! You are being honored by the Florida Occupational Therapy Educational Consortium (FLOTEC), in recognition of your Dedication, Commitment and Service to Occupational Therapy Fieldwork Education.

Every year FLOTEC selects fieldwork educators from across the state and honors them with an Award of Excellence. You have been nominated and selected by an academic program and/or students as a fieldwork educator who exhibits superior communication, interpersonal behaviors, professional and teaching behaviors.

An effective supervisor is one who is able to:

- Clarify expectations of supervision at outset
- Establish and maintain boundaries
- Teach practical skills
- Maintain membership in his/her state and national associations
- Be accessible and available to their students
- Encourage students to explore new ideas and techniques (thinks outside the box)
- Use and promote reflective practice; demonstrate enthusiasm for Occupational Therapy
- Foster autonomy and independence
- Model professional and ethical behavior
- Assess student's learning needs
- Accept values and celebrate diversity
- Be aware of their own limitations and strengths
- Work collaboratively with students
- Maintain open and honest relationships with students
- Convey a supportive and caring attitude

Thank you for providing an exceptional learning environment for occupational therapy students in our state. This Award of Excellence, will be presented to you by your Academic Fieldwork Coordinator at the FOTA annual conference student awards ceremony, November 17th at 11.00 am in Orlando.

Sincerely,

Linda R. Struckmeyer, PhD, OTR/L
FLOTEC Chairperson
